News Release

On Saturday, 09-25-04 UCONN students and their guests gathered at an "off campus" fraternity (CHI-PHI) for a large party with a live band. "Under Cover" State Police personnel attended the party and witnessed various illegal activities to include, but not limited to; distribution of alcohol without a permit, sale of alcoholic beverages to minors, and narcotics violations. Mansfield Resident Troopers, Mansfield Police Officers, and Troop C Troopers responded to the scene and took eight people into custody for various violations. Of the eight people arrested, six claimed to be UCONN students. One partygoer, who was not a UCONN student, was arrested for assaulting a Trooper during the investigation. Fourteen (14) Kegs of beer and a small quantity of marijuana were seized during the course of the investigation.
